PGT TRUCKING CEO ADDRESSES US STEEL EMPLOYEES

March 19, 2012 (Monaca, PA) – PGT Trucking CEO Pat Gallagher recently toured the US Steel Irvin Plant at the Mon Valley Works with PA Lt. Governor Jim Cawley and executives from US Steel and other vendors. The Lieutenant Governor spoke about the future of the steel industry and how it directly relates to the growing Marcellus Shale industry. Mr. Gallagher addressed US Steel employees about moving the pipe from the plant to the factories that coat the pipe to the end user gas companies, referencing safety as a key component. He also spoke about the potential for that industry and how it will affect the next few generations for the better. PGT Trucking also had a truck onsite at the press conference with a full load of steel pipes ready to move.
