PGT Trucking Welcomes New Executive Director of Driver Resources

January 31, 2013 (Monaca, PA) – PGT Trucking is pleased to welcome Russ Peters as the Executive Director of Driver Resources effective January 28th. In this role, Russ will oversee the driver training, maintain accurate and current instruction and ensure on-going training for all driver functions and roles. Russ will report directly to Gregg Troian, President of PGT.

Russ has over 30 years of experience in the transportation industry leading and managing people. He excels at reducing costs, increasing productivity, improving service, and most important at PGT Trucking, focusing on safety.

Prior to joining PGT, Russ was the Vice President of Operations - Eastern & Southeastern Regions at Vitran Express, located in Gibsonsia, PA. At Vitran, he led the expansion and growth of Vitran Express to a single corporate structure with annual revenue of $400 million and more the 5,200 employees working out of 74 service centers in 37 states. Before Vitran, Russ was the Vice President of Operations at PJAX Freight System, also in Gibsonsia, PA. PJAX was a company with over $150 million in annual revenue serviced out of 25 locations in 11 states. PJAX was later acquired by Vitran. He has also served as a Vice President of the Eastern Region, Director of Operations and Service Center Manager at Carolina Freight Carriers in Pittsburgh, where he led the Eastern Region to be one of the most profitable regions over several years for Carolina.

Russ is a graduate from the University of Pittsburgh and holds a Bachelor of Science in Biochemistry. He also has ISO experience. Russ and his family reside in Franklin Park, north of Pittsburgh.
