PGT Trucking Adds Executive Appointments

Aliquippa, PA, June 24, 2024 - PGT Trucking, Inc., a multi-service transportation firm offering flatbed, dedicated, international and specialized solutions, announces the addition of two new executive members, Mark Mageary, Vice President, Maintenance, and Tom Cook, Vice President, Recruiting, supporting the company’s development and focus on driver growth.

Mageary, bringing more than 23 years of experience in the trucking industry, has effectively implemented maintenance programs designed to reduce costs, increase operational efficiencies and streamline overall asset management. Prior to joining PGT, Mageary worked as the VP of Maintenance for a 10,000+ truck carrier, focused on developing policies to drive business growth, strengthen vendor relationships and standardize operations.

Mageary holds an associate degree in business from the University of Phoenix and is a member of the American Trucking Associations Technology and Maintenance Council.

“Mark will work closely with PGT’s partner, Penske Truck Leasing, as he oversees PGT’s maintenance operations and company assets,” stated Gregg Troian, PGT Trucking President. “With Mark’s guidance, we will continue to enhance PGT’s driver offerings, ensuring that our Proud Professionals have quality equipment, minimal downtime and reliable service.”

Cook has more than 33 years of experience in driver recruiting and management in transportation. During his career, Cook consistently contributed to each company’s hiring goals, leading his recruiting teams to post record numbers year after year. Cook developed partnerships with advertising firms, CDL schools and other truck driver training programs, leveraging these resources to increase efficiency and expand company fleets. He is a native of Ohio and holds a degree in sales management/business administration from Columbus Business University.

“Tom will lead PGT’s Recruiting Department to hire and retain safe, professional truck drivers, helping PGT achieve our driver growth goals,” added Troian. “With his proven track record at major carriers, I am confident that Tom will be a valued resource and motivating leader at PGT.”
